MOTT LEADS THE TREASURY RAIDERS

Apparently He Is Trying to Force the City Into Bankruptcy.

Is the city bankrupt? The raising of the city treasury will go on under the direction of Frank K. Mott, chairman of the Finance Committee. The Council meets every night ostensibly to consider the matter of fixing water rates, but at almost every meeting some new claim against the treasury in connection with the water suit comes up. The fact that the city's direct expenses already passed the $200,000 mark and are steadily piling up, is an indication of the reckless manner in which the money has been spent.

Since the tabulation of the accrued costs on March 13, several new claims have come in. On Wednesday night one $20 was presented on behalf of Sam Blum of Martinez, for services as an alleged real estate expert. The character of this claim shows how Mott gives the public money away with both hands on the most trivial pretext. Blum's alleged services consisted of spending about fifteen minutes on the stand in giving his estimate of the value of three tracts of land on Pinole Creek. In one of these tracts, he owns an equity interest which he is trying to dispose of. Therefore he wants to boost the Pinole water scheme. His land has been sold under mortgage foreclosure, but he holds the right of redemption for a limited period.

Now it is proposed to give this man $20 out of the city treasury for saying a good word for a project in which he has a personal interest. It is no more an expert than he is King of the Canibal Islands.

It must be borne in mind that the expenses charged up against the water case do not include the money paid out to City Attorney Dow who is determined to buy a fire engine from his friend A. J. Fish and let the merchants whistle for their pay. He was well aware that those bills had to be paid out of the revenues of the current year or he a total loss to the men who supplied the goods. Now Dow, with the aid of Mott and Cuvellier, has himself reached into the City Treasury to take money that rightly belongs to tradesmen and others holding legitimate claims against the city.

Under the present condition of affairs business men holding unpaid claims against the city could be justified in suing out an injunction to restrain the Council from spending any more money on irregular projects and political favorites.

Among the amounts dispensed with prodigal hand by Mott & Co. on account of the water suit, are $100 to George F. Allard, $100 to M. K. Miller and $200 to Van Hook & Co. of Oakland, two San Francisco bookkeepers. These huge sums make Sam Blum's $20 claim look modest by comparison.

It will be remembered that the city was threatened with a financial stranglehold on the opening of the fiscal year. That was before nearly $200,000 had been expended for outside purposes not included in the yearly budget. All the departments were cut down to the lowest notch, the schools included. Now that the city treasury has been burdened with this huge mass of claims, somehow must suffer. Who will be the victim? The city did not have enough money to pay its legitimate running expenses to start with, and the Council has since incurred something like $200,000 of indebtedness for various outside purposes. Where is the money coming from to meet this gigantic delinquency?

Yes, Mott and his associates are busy so on creating new claims and preparing for new law suits as further pretexts for raiding the treasury. Things have come to such a pass as to require the application of a drastic remedy. The taxpayers are entitled to some protection from the irresponsible body that seems bent on forcing the city into bankruptcy and insuring it in the process. A litigation regarding questions that have already been submitted to the courts for adjudication.

There ought to be some way to stop this wanton abuse of power and such criminal waste of public money. The whole city government is being dragged a helpless and impotent wreck in the train of the Enquirer's crusade against the water company. The agents of the political firm of which Mott is the head, are the organ and quartet on the city treasury in defiance of decency and the pretense of the voters, while every legitimate function of municipal government is neglected and proscribed.

TWO MEN SHOT BY LUNATIC.

Exciting Scene in the Cafe of a New York Hotel.

Student Insults an Actress and Starts Shooting.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. NEW YORK, March 22.—Two men were shot at an early hour this morning in the bathhouse of the Hotel New York. The injured men are J. D. Leffingwell, 40 years old, of the Broadway Theatre, who is wounded in the left side, and A. W. Dingwall, general manager of Jacob Litt's theatrical enterprise. The man who is alleged to have done the shooting gave his name as Richard Hadden Morris, 25 years old, and said he is a student and a native of Tennessee, a guest of the Criterion Hotel. He was placed in jail.

About 1:45 o'clock Morris entered the bathhouse, where probably seventy-five men and women were bathing and drinking. He is said to have talked calmly to the men present, and then he drew his revolver and fired five shots, wounding two men. Morris was held until officers were called. He continually exclaimed, "What have I done?" and is believed to be of unsound mind. The wounded men were removed to hospitals, where their wounds were pronounced not dangerous.

When Morris was arraigned in the Police Court he said he was Robert H. Moulton of Springfield, Tenn., and that he had been a student of three years at Columbia University. He was held in $500 bail for examination next Monday.

The Evening World report of the shooting says: Some time after midnight Morris, a student of Columbia University, entered the bathhouse of the Broadway Theatre, and an elderly gentleman, who had been seated only a few minutes when Morris entered and seeing Miss Sellman seated himself just what Morris did to annoy the actress and her companion. Morris then turned to Mr. Leffingwell and that gentleman, arising went to Morris and told him he would have to behave himself or move his seat.

Morris' reply was to draw his revolver and start shooting. The first ball struck Leffingwell in the side and he reeled back. His companion ran to his assistance and grasped the young man by the arms. Morris then turned and fired a second shot, which struck the back of the man who had been seated only a few minutes when Morris entered and seeing Miss Sellman seated himself just what Morris did to annoy the actress and her companion.

Meanwhile the crowded cafe was turned into a bedlam. The flying crowd swept the waters off their feet as the latter charged toward the wild young man with the revolver. Finally the land waiter and a detective reached him and disarmed him.

Moulton said that he was a user of morphine and that he took a good deal of the drug yesterday. He said he remembered going to the Broadway Theatre and remembers the second act of the play, but nothing more, until he found himself in the patrol wagon.

It was said at the hospital that Dingwall was resting easily.

After the proceedings in court were finished a statement was given out that the woman who was with Dingwall and Leffingwell at the time of the shooting was Miss Sellman, a member of the company now appearing at the Broadway Theatre. Miss Sellman asserted she had not been in the bath at all last night.

MAKING IT EASY FOR CHINA

United States Wants Indemnities Scaled Down.

It Sets an Example of Generosity to the Powers.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. WASHINGTON, March 22.—Although the situation at Tien Tsin was never regarded here as really dangerous, the officials felt that a prolongation of the hostile attitude of the British and Russian forces might lead to trouble in the end, so that the news of the arrangement by which both of the powers are enabled to recede from their positions without loss of honor was received with relief. With this exciting issue withdrawn, the Chinese trouble has assumed a less menacing aspect and it is reported that the Ministers have been able, leaving in abeyance the troublesome subject of indemnities, to make some headway toward the disposition of the points remaining to be adjusted under the articles subscribed to by China and the Powers as the basis for the joint meeting at Peking.

Further inquiry into the indemnity question makes it appear that the sum of $200,000,000 which our Government considers the maximum that should be levied upon the Chinese as a tax, represents absolutely the limit of Chinese ability, according to the calculations of the officials best formed as to the resources of China. The figure named does not represent the aggregate of the indemnities claimed. On the contrary, it is understood that these are very much larger. The United States, faced upon the sum of $25,000,000 as a suitable indemnity to be claimed, notwithstanding that officials of the various departments are satisfied that this sum will only provide for the payment of a certain percentage of the items claimed, because it was felt that this was as much as we should claim proportionately of the total of $200,000,000.

It is not the intention to divide this $200,000,000 into as many equal parts as there are powers, but while dividing it into eight or ten parts to see to it that these parts are so proportioned as to enable the powers to take advantage of the situation. The United States is bent upon suppressing the Boxer troubles. This Government would be willing to abate the $25,000,000 claim if the other powers would reduce their claims in the same proportion, even to the extent of reducing the total estimate to $100,000,000, if by so doing the Chinese Government would be relieved by having the tax adjusted to their abilities. But although in grave doubt whether China can pay more than $100,000,000, our Government feels itself bound to secure compensation for its citizens and itself to the same extent as is secured by other powers, and is especially resolved to do this because of the contention that a total abandonment of our claims, or even a heavy reduction, without corresponding action on the part of the other powers, would rather injure than help China by destroying whatever restraining influence the State Department has so far been able to exert upon less sympathetic powers.

Mr. Moulton, the young man held in New York on the charge of shooting, is the youngest son of the late Frank Moulton, at one time a well known grain dealer in this city. Moulton is about twenty-four years of age and has been at Columbia College several years qualifying himself as an architect.

FLIMSEY ELECTION CONTEST FILED.

A Defeated Republican Lends Himself to Municipal League Purposes.

A mild sensation was sprung this morning by the filing of an election contest by Ethan R. Allen, one of the three defeated Republican candidates for Councilman-at-Large, against George T. Burtchell, who was elected on the Municipal League ticket. According to the official returns Mr. Burtchell defeated Mr. Allen by 24 votes.

The filing of this contest is an apt illustration of the old adage that "politics makes strange bedfellows." Behind Mr. Allen in his effort to unseat Mr. Burtchell is the Municipal League, or rather the persons who are doing politics under that name. Because Mr. Burtchell manifested unexpected personal independence and refused to allow himself to be prodded in the parade and Dalton interests he was marked for destruction.

Allen, who is an impressive young man with little experience in politics, was very much disappointed at his failure to be elected, and was loath to ascribe his defeat to the common complaint of not enough votes. The Municipal League, anxious to revenge themselves on George T. Burtchell, who was elected on their ticket but declined to be a blind political puppet, and they found young Mr. Allen nursing the sore toe of his disappointment, and ready clay for the potter's hand. They decided to use him as an instrument in their effort to punish Burtchell for being a man and not a dummy.

So Allen was incited and encouraged to institute a contest, although the personal back of it knew that there was no merit in his case and no hope of his success. Allen, however, is to enjoy Burtchell's defeat at some expense. Thus the people who denounced Allen as a corrupt politician before the election are now backing him in his contest. Allen does not realize that he is simply being used as a dead cat to fling at Burtchell for his contumacy in refusing to obey orders.

The principal ground of the contest is that Burtchell and Charles A. Bon, who were elected on the Republican ticket, are, and were at the time of the election, both residents of the First Ward. The election of two Councilmen from the same ward is prohibited by the city charter.

It is well known that this provision of the City Charter is unconstitutional and invalid and has been so declared by the courts. Making it the principal basis of an election contest shows the flimsy character of Allen's claims, and their lack of substantial merit in law. The other allegations are simply generalities based upon nothing in particular. They are simply incorporated in the complaint to give it an imposing air and to enable him to take advantage of anything that might turn up in his favor.

The other formal grounds are alleged, such as misconduct of election boards, illegal counting of ballots, false returns and the counting of marked ballots.

In the official canvass Bon received 2,633 votes. Burtchell received 2,310 votes, while Allen received 2,270.

Of the nineteen candidates for Councilman-at-Large the following four were elected: George W. Dornin, C. A. Bon, George T. Burtchell, and B. C. Cuvellier.

Allen is a resident of the Fifth Ward. He states the grounds of his contest to Burtchell's election as follows: "That said Burtchell was not at the time of said election, and is not now, eligible to said office of Councilman-at-Large of the City of Oakland by reason of the fact, and it is a fact, that said Bon received at said election 2,633 votes for said office of Councilman-at-Large and said Burtchell received but 2,310 votes for said office, and that at the time of said election and for a long time prior thereto both said Bon and said Burtchell were and had been and they both now are residents of the same ward of said City of Oakland, to-wit: of and in the First Ward thereof."

"That illegal votes were so returned and then counted and credited to said Burtchell in and by said canvass of said returns and in the declaration of the result thereof."

"That legal votes cast at said election for this contestant were not returned, credited or counted as cast for him."

"That this contestant had and now has, cast for him at said election a greater and higher number of legal votes for said office of Councilman-at-Large than said Burtchell had or has cast therefor for him for said office."

"That in each of the said several precincts there was misconduct on the part of the board of election judges thereof, in this, that said several boards counted ballots for said Burtchell on which his name did not appear and failed to count ballots on which the name of Allen did appear."

On his showing Allen petitions for a recount. One of the most amusing features of the contest is that the Municipal Leaguers are now counting at an assault on the integrity of the election boards that the Municipal League Councilmen appointed in defiance

Texas Sheriff Sure Henderson Abducted Young Cudahy.

DALLAS, Tex., March 22.—At noon today Sheriff Johnson sent the following telegram to Omaha: "I have the man Henderson, who is the kidnaper of young Cudahy, in my custody. He is a member of one of the prominent families of Omaha, who escaped from prison where he was serving a fifteen years' sentence for robbery several years ago."

OMAHA, Neb., March 22.—Chief of Police Donahue was shown the dispatch from Dallas stating the Sheriff there had appealed to Mr. Cudahy to send his son to Dallas to identify the man Henderson, under sentence for a crime committed in that city. The Chief said the telegram had been referred to him by Mr. Cudahy. He said Mr. Cudahy would not send his son and that he, the Chief, would have nothing whatever to do with the case.

When Henderson was arrested his photograph was sent to Chief Donahue, who showed it to all the persons who had seen the abductors and none of them could identify him. The Chief of Police says there is absolutely no evidence to connect Henderson with the case, and he will not act on Henderson's confession at all. Mr. Cudahy could not be seen this afternoon.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
NEW YORK, March 22.—At a meeting of the Committee on Streets and Railroads of the Board of Aldermen, held in the Brooklyn Borough Hall last night, Albert L. Johnson offered to become a tenant of the Brooklyn tunnel and reduce the time of travel between the Battery and Richmond Borough to fifteen minutes, besides establishing a 5-cent fare, if the tunnel were built as he wished it.

Mr. Johnson said in part: "I am willing to consider any reasonable proposition that may be offered by the Rapid Transit Commission, if they include in their proposed route one which will lead through South Brooklyn as near Second Avenue as possible (being governed entirely by the cost of construction) and ending on the Staten Island side of the Narrows."

Mrs. O'Connor denies that she is an enemy of her sister, Mrs. Crann. Both are middle-aged women. Mrs. O'Connor has resided for twenty-six years in Oakland and is the mother of eleven children. Mrs. Crann resides in San Francisco and is childless. According to Mrs. O'Connor, her sister has always displayed great affection for the O'Connor children, treating them as if they were her own.

"Our differences all came about money which my sister loaned me," said Mrs. O'Connor today. "My sister knew that I was not able to repay her at once, and understood that I would repay the loan as soon as I had finished paying for the land where I built a home. But she came to me on a Sunday night and insisted on my giving her a mortgage on our homestead. That was not in our agreement and was quite impossible."

OUR WALKING
REGISTRARS
OF LETTERS.

An unprecedented opportunity for competition among the thirty-eight letter carriers of the Oakland Postoffice has been created through a circular issued to the Postmasters at all free delivery offices by Third Assistant Postmaster General Edwin C. Madden. The circular, directed toward Mr. Madden's pet hobby of increasing the registry business of the Postoffice, is of interest to the general public and reads as follows:

"The success of the system of registration of valuable letters by carriers on their routes depends, in a great measure, upon the energy, zeal and faithfulness of the letter carriers themselves in securing their patrons to patronize this service."

"It is not difficult for any Postmaster to determine which of the carriers of his force are faithfully and properly co-operating with the Department in its efforts to gather all valuable matter into the registered mail."

"For purposes of its own, the Department desires to ascertain the names of the carriers who, under the circumstances and conditions of their respective routes are taken into consideration, have given the highest degree of satisfaction in this branch of the service."

Therefore, the Postmaster at every free delivery office is requested to send to this office, as soon as practicable after the 1st of July, 1901, the names and numbers of three letter carriers at his office who registered the greatest number of articles on their routes during the period beginning with the 1st of January, 1901, together with the number of articles registered by each, respectively.

EDWIN C. MADDEN,
Third Assistant Postmaster General.

NO COUNCIL MEETING.

There was no meeting of the City Council last evening, owing to the lack of a quorum. Only six councilmen were present: They were Chairman Barlow, Johnson, Girard, Meene, Mott, and Stetson.

After waiting about a half hour to secure a quorum, the Councilmen present adjourned to the Council chamber and were called to order. As soon as the roll had been called Girard arose to his feet and said:

"Mr. Chairman, I believe the chairman of this Council has power to compel the attendance of absent members. I move that a policeman be sent out to bring in members enough to make a quorum."

There was no second to Girard's motion. Chairman Barlow said that there were not being a quorum present, he would, by the authority vested in him adjourn the meeting.

Meene suggested that the adjournment should be taken through a motion to that effect. Mott made the motion and an adjournment was taken until this evening.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 22.—The Nebraska Senatorial situation was considered at a consultation between the President and Senator Hanna, chairman of the Republican National Committee today. The administration is anxious that the deadlock be broken in order that the election of president and the Republican National Committee has been exerting its influence to that end. Senator Hanna did not resist the publication of the telegrams which he sent to Lincoln urging acquiescence in the will of the majority and says he will send no more telegrams to people who make them public.

"I have hopes," said the Senator, "that sooner or later loyalty to the Republican party will bring the bolters to their senses."

THE GOVERNOR AND PARDEE.

A San Francisco dispatch states that friends of Governor Page are indignant at the tone of carping detractors that Dr. Pardee habitually uses in speaking of the Governor and his administration. They say this is a poor return for the honor conferred upon Pardee by appointing him Regent of the State University. They consider it bad taste for a defeated candidate to thus belittle his successful rival for party preference. It is perhaps natural for the Governor's friends to feel annoyed at this, but in Alameda county, where Dr. Pardee's political peculiarities are understood, it excites no surprise and but little remark. For many years it has been Dr. Pardee's fixed rule in politics to stamp an unworthy, either by insinuation or direct assertion, every man who has stood in the way of his ambition. Covert or open assault upon the personal reputations of his opponents has been the distinguishing characteristic of his political career. This calls to mind that there were two Alameda candidates for the Republican gubernatorial nomination in 1898. When Dr. Pardee carried the primaries W. R. Davis promptly fell in behind his successful opponent. When Governor Page received the nomination Mr. Davis was among the first to take the stump in his behalf, and has ever since been his loyal and consistent supporter. He has received no mark of honor at the Governor's hands, but he can always be depended upon to give him cordial and effective support. He does not sneer at the Chief Executive nor flout the leading features of his policy by feigning remarks in either public or private conversation.

A MATTER OF SENTIMENT.

What has become of the knapsack? For ten years after the close of the Civil War every American boy had well-developed desires for, first, a pair of red-topped boots, and second, a knapsack in which to carry his books. Now you never see one. The Spanish war has left no such visible reminder of the occurrence in the daily life of young Americans. Orange crop produced south of Tehachapi this year, censer of the former generation and his toys and playthings are cheaper and more numerous, but an unsung hero of leather strap holds his loathed school books together, and he has no hide-covered square box in whose mysterious depths are hidden forbidden odds and ends. The Spanish war has been singularly devoid of lasting impressions, judging from the lore of boyhood, and Dewey and Manila Bay are the only things remembered by the youngsters. You can't carry schoolbooks in them, however, and the disappearance of the knapsack from schoolboy life has left an aching void.

What an opportunity is presented for local charities in the prospective duel between the Prince and the Mayor. Admission tickets at $5 and $10 apiece would find a ready market if the affair could be brought off in some public place, and there need be no fear of serious results, for the contestants could be placed a mile apart, which would be appropriate for a race track squabble in view of the long shots entailed. Anything—even popguns—would be better than the mere "shooting off of mouths" they are now indulging in, for it is impossible to get satisfaction out of a wrangle.

Those who have been thinking that by organizing in another State they could dodge the new law imposing heavy filing fees for incorporation are going to be badly fooled. The Legislature, foreseeing this, passed a companion measure whereby all foreign corporations doing business here must also file articles in this State, paying full fees thereon, or else be subjected to a $750 penalty. That more than even things up, for now a California promoter organizing outside of the State will have to pay two sets of fees.

George Burtchell was clearly elected as Councilman-at-Large to represent the Second ward, and would have been permitted to enjoy his seat in peace had he been inclined to lie down and worship at the shrine of the Municipal League, giving up manhood, patronage and everything else. But as Mr. Burtchell is an independent man, he is to be bound and put to all the expense possible by a contested election lawsuit. For this reason a suit has been filed by a young man named Allen, who was scarcely born when Mr. Burtchell was a taxpaying citizen of Oakland.

Carnegie is one rich man who does not propose to have his estate looted in the future by adventurers, squandervags or will smashers. Judging by the manner in which he is giving away millions right and left he won't leave much behind him, for enormous though his fortune undoubtedly is, it cannot long stand the drain to which he is subjecting it. Five millions last week to New York and now five millions to Philadelphia are the latest items, and so far he has given no indication of checking his princely philanthropy.

Even with the Santa Fe competing line in full operation it is feared the railroads will not be able to handle the enormous orange crop produced south of Tehachapi this year. We are progressing so fast out here nowadays that it is almost impossible to keep pace with the advance and the question of what the wealth and commerce of California will amount to fifty years from now is one of stupendous possibility.

Vast new ledgers of great value are said to have been recently uncovered in the marble quarries of Inyo county. California may be turning a marble heart to the rest of the world, but it is the sort that will bring us friends rather than otherwise.

DUKE OF SAXE WEIMAR TO WED.

Associated Press Dispatch to The Tribune.
WEIMAR, March 22.—It is stated on reliable authority that the Grand Duke Wilhelm Ernest of Saxe-Weimar will, on the expiration of the period of mourning for Queen Victoria, become engaged to the youngest daughter of the late Duke Alfred of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha.

STARBEANS.

Some men of force are only so through force of habit.

The latest new woman wants to brace up and be a man. Stock in the woolen trust is below par. Watering it probably made it shrink.

Some men would have less difficulty in passing counterfeit money than in passing a saloon.

After all, there are few girls that even reach the age of 18 without experiencing the joys of a broken heart.

If hell is paved with good intentions, says the Philadelphia Record, the sidewalks must be crowded with painless dentists.

Some injured wives, who complain that they have nothing to live for, seem to forget that their husbands may have life insurance.

It is reported that Bob Fitzsimmons has become a split-up. It was spirits that ruined John L. Sullivan and many other noted pugilists.

There really doesn't seem to be any special reason why Cuba should bear a grudge against America for freeing her from Spain. Still it's the old story of the peacemaker in a family quarrel.—Kansas City Star.

TWO POINTS OF VIEW.

HERE.

I saw my love and said that it was good;
Then laid it as an offering at thy feet.

And dreamed that it could make thy life complete,
And be thy spirit's satisfying food.

This thought by thee was never understood;
For thou my precious gift didst lightly treat.

As some new toy to make thy leisure sweet,
And be thy plaything in a happy mood.

Thy careless moments are reserved for me,
Who long in vain to comfort thee with love.

And wrest thy struggling soul from sorrow's power, Dear, is it light that such a thing should be?

That all the passion of my heart should prove
A pleasant pastime for an idle hour?

THERE.

Upon thy love I made no great demands Nor daily needs before it dared to bring.

Because I held it such a holy thing I feared to touch it with unwashed hands.

Do travelers brush the stains of dusty lands
With feathers borrowed from an angel's wing?

Or sons of toil the songs of Zion sing Beside the busy Babylonian sands?

Though common cares are hidden from thine eyes,
And sorrow never ventures in thy sight.

Let not the glory of thy love grow dim, Nay, Sweetheart—shall the sun refuse to rise

Because he never saw the world by night,
So thinks the morning has no need of him.

VIOLATING OUR IMMIGRATION LAWS.

Associated Press Dispatch to The Tribune.

UTICA, N. Y., March 22.—Many destitute immigrants are arriving in Utica from the north. Apparently the barrier which the immigration laws are supposed to extend about the United States is broken at some point on the northern boundary of the State of New York. Within the last few days the police have picked up many immigrants, including a family of destitute Russians. The appearance of the Russians occasioned comment, because the laws of the nation do not allow the destitute to be landed by the steamship companies.

For a long time it has been easy for the prohibited ones to sneak into the country across the northern border. It has long been a favorite gateway for the Chinamen, who, for some strange reason, travel from the landing place on the Pacific away across the continent to enter by the State of New York route. If it should come about that other classes of immigrants find that this is a desirable thing to do the influx will be decidedly costly.

VANDERBILT'S WORKMEN STRIKE.

Associated Press Dispatch to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, March 22.—Delegations from the Building Trades Unions of New York City have been to Oakdale, L. I., to order out about 100 mechanics who were employed on William K. Vanderbilt's summer residence, "Idle Hour." In consequence seventy-five of the workmen came back to Manhattan, and those who lived in the vicinity returned to their homes, and work on the building came to a standstill. The trouble arose from the fact that the principal contractor sublet the steam piping to a plumber who does not employ union men. The carpenters and decorators remained at work, but expect orders from their unions to leave the job at once. Mr. Vanderbilt was endeavoring by the employment of a large force of men to have "Idle Hour" ready for occupancy this summer. The building on which work was progressing burned about a year ago.

SAYS HE IS GUDAHY'S KIDNAPER.

Associated Press Dispatch to The Tribune.

DALLAS, Tex., March 22.—According to a statement made by H. W. Sumner, County Attorney, a prisoner in the Dallas jail named H. E. Henderson has declared himself to be the kidnaper of young Gudahy of Omaha. He did not give facts and circumstances and did not swear to his statement, although he had been warned as required by law, but says young Gudahy will identify him. He says he came here from El Paso and to that place from Denver. He says he was born in Iowa, that he once had a patent right which he sold for $50,000. He stands convicted here of swindling, and has been sentenced to thirteen years in the penitentiary.

ALARMING WAR NEWS FROM CHINA.

Associated Press Dispatch to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, March 22.—A dispatch to the Herald from Berlin says:
A number of newspapers publish alarming news in regard to the situation in China. England is said to be backing up Japan, which is mobilizing her army, and the Russian fleet is assembling at the Yalu river.

The mediation of Count von Walderssee in the Tien Tsin dispute has been refused by both England and Russia.
An article in the semi-official Yost does its best to calm the public mind and states that there is no ground for anxiety. Certainly intimacies, it states, will be exerted in order to prevent the present conflict becoming embittered.

MANGHURIAN TREATY HANGS FIRE.

Associated Press Dispatch to The Tribune.

LONDON, March 22.—Advices have been received here from Peking to the effect that Yang Yu, the Chinese Minister at St. Petersburg, recently stated that modifications of some of the articles of the Manchurian treaty had been conceded by Russia. It is claimed these modifications were intended to avoid placing obstacles in the way of sovereignty and independence of China. The modifications were forwarded by the Chinese plenipotentiaries to the court at St. Petersburg. An edict has been received at Peking in reply stating that the treaty cannot receive imperial sanction.

FAREWELL TO HIS DAYS OF CELIBACY.

Superb Banquet Given
Thos. H. Williams, Jr.
By His Friends.

Thomas H. Williams Jr., President of the California Jockey Club, who is to wed Miss Beatrice Steele tomorrow evening, was "farewelled" at a banquet last night by a score of his most intimate friends. The affair occurred at the Pacific Union Club in San Francisco. It was pronounced one of the most delightful banquets ever participated in by those present. Such well known and renowned club men as Herman Oelrichs, Col. H. H. Veuve, J. Nagree Burke, and others arranged it. Needless to say everything was on up-to-date and most correct lines.

One of the club's small dining rooms was beautifully decorated for the occasion, yellow and black, the colors of the California Jockey Club, predominating. Black ribbons attached to oranges were pinned to the walls in numerous places. There were also evergreens used in the decorations.

A large, round table in the center of the room, around which some twenty-three friends of Mr. Williams gathered, was adorned with cherry and apple blossoms and a profusion of cut glass.

At the head, Colonel H. H. Veuve presided as chairman, with the guest of honor, Mr. Williams, on his right. The other gentlemen present were: Herman Oelrichs, F. T. Carlson, W. T. Byrne, President of the Pacific Union Club, Alexander Hamilton, F. R. Webster, Walter S. Martin, J. N. Burke, C. E. Paxton, Louis Lissak, Robert R. Grayson, Harry J. Crosswell, W. S. Leake, Truxton Beale, W. J. Martin, Thomas McCalah, C. S. Givens, Thomas Blaney, L. B. Hadden, C. H. Hadden, J. M. Quay, Charles G. Lyman and Carroll Strayer.

The banquet began at 7:30 and cigars were lighted at 8 o'clock. Then informal speech making was indulged in.

Herman Oelrichs led off with felicitous remarks, in which he said:

"We are all, I take it, almost too intimate with Tom Williams and ourselves to throw 'banquets' at him or at each other. It seems to me you would all be better pleased if I limit my remarks to expressing our pleasure at having him with us this evening as our guest. He is not going to leave us to relapse into his new-found happiness. He proposes to remain right here among us and he expects us all to be witnesses of his felicity. He has proven by recent events that he is great in war and I am sure he will be great in peace. As a result of the war he should settle up and as a result of peace he should settle down. We cannot separate the two who, in a few hours are to be made one, and so I propose the health of the bride and groom. He drank in bumpers."

After the toast had been drunk in goblets of sparkling wine, Mr. Oelrichs resumed and concluded his remarks by presenting, with the best wishes of those present, a superb punch bowl to Mr. Williams.

The bowl is a massive silver, gold lined, with a heavy raised row of vines, leaves and grapes top and bottom. The exterior bears the inscription:

"THOMAS H. WILLIAMS JR.
From His Friends."

The donors names are engraved upon the bowl, which weighs 65 ounces. The bowl is of Dutch type, with a silver and handle, weighs ten ounces.

It was with considerable emotion that Mr. Williams accepted the gift, saying:

"It was understood that there should be no speeches tonight and so I will give you my thanks for this kind expression of your regard for me. This is not a farewell dinner, as many have supposed. It is the most hospitable reception I have ever had in my life, and all I can say is that I hope that my better half is a million times better than I am. I trust that I shall be able to invite you all to my home. Once again I thank you."

The toast, "To the Better Half" was then proposed by Mr. Oelrichs and participated in with deep sincerity. The punch bowl was filled with sparkling liquid and circulated around the room, and for some hours the gentlemen conversed. When they dispersed it was with a heartfelt wish that Tom Williams and his bride would enjoy for many years the name of happiness.

Women Dread

The disfigurement caused by skin disease, even more than the tormenting irritation which is so commonly associated with it. The use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery generally results in a complete cure of eczema, pimples, eruptions and other forms of skin disease which have their cause in an impure condition of the blood.

"Golden Medical Discovery" absolutely purges the blood of humors and poisons, and cures the cutaneous diseases which had blood broods and feeds.

There is no alcohol in the "Golden Medical Discovery" and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine, and all other narcotics.

"I was troubled with eczema from the crown of my head to the sole of my feet," writes Mrs. Ella Ogley, Cass City, Mo. "I could not walk at times, nor wear my shoes. Thought there was no help for me, at least the doctor said so. I went to see friends at Christmas time and there heard of the good that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery had done for others. I was advised to try it at once. For fear that I might neglect it my friends sent to the village and got a bottle and made me promise that I would take it. I had been getting worse all the time. I took thirteen bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and ten more of Dr. Pierce's 'Little Pills,' and used the 'All Healing Salve,' which made a complete cure. It was slow, but sure. I was taking the medicine about eight months."

"I would say to all who read this: Try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery before waiting time and money."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets assist the action of the "Discovery."

WINS HER LONG FIGHT.

BERKELEY, Mar. 22.—Mrs. Mary Townsend, who for the past twenty-five years has defended her fifty-foot lot at the corner of Haste street and Shattuck avenue from the railroad and the town of Berkeley, has won a complete victory.

The town has given up its long fight, and the condemnation proceedings by which it sought to dispossess Mrs. Townsend of the little strip of land extending half way across Shattuck avenue and the railroad tracks at Haste street have been compromised by the payment of $200 to the aged defender. A few days ago she drove away "empire" of the Haste street front and tried to cut the weeds in front of her property. A short time ago the Trustees concluded to give up the fight and Town Attorney H. H. Hatcher had been negotiating the compromise by which Mrs. Townsend gives up the property to the street.

YOUNG DIPLOMATS.

BERKELEY, Mar. 22.—Under the auspices of the ladies of the Political Economy Society of this city the students of the local high school will debate upon the woman's suffrage question in the Opera House April 1. Cash prizes will be given each to the best boy and girl debater.

The question for debate will be: "Resolved, That suffrage should be extended to women."

For the affirmative the following will speak: Harry Sully, L. C. Hawley and Miss Ann Hatcher. Their opponents will be Miss Jessie Hiner, Miss Alice Hoag and L. J. Kennedy.

DIPLOMATS' IMMUNITIES.

BERKELEY, Mar. 22.—The Hon. John W. Foster yesterday continued his address to the Berkeley students upon the subject of the immunities of Embassadors and Ministers. He explained that two centuries ago diplomats enjoyed complete exemption from local jurisdiction, as were also their houses and families, and in many cities they were free from police laws. These immunities became burdensome to the states which sent them, and the representatives are subject only to the laws of the state which sent them.

The free franchise of the country to which they are accredited. This immunity extends to the Ministers' families and domestic servants. The diplomats are followed by government when their representatives flagrantly transgress the laws of the country to which they are sent is to recall them.

A member of a legation cannot be required to appear in court as a witness. However, during the trial of Galtzau, the Minister of Venezuela, who was an important case, voluntarily applied to the country, and being granted permission, gave his testimony.

A children of a Minister of member of his suit, being American citizens, born in the legation, would be held to have been born within the United States. Therefore, they are entitled to the same citizenship as the child of a born citizen.

RESOURCES OF NATIONAL BANKS

Great Gains Shown By the Controller's Report.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire

NEW YORK, March 22.—A special to the Tribune from Washington says: The Controller of the Currency will soon publish a complete statement from all the national banks in the United States. As this statement is made in answer to the first call for 1901, the results are being awaited with much interest. The time between December 13th and February 5th, the date of the call is said in industrial circles to be the dull season. But figures already obtained from abstracts reflect surprisingly large gains as compared with the previous statement, which was a record breaker.

The aggregate resources of the 535 banks in New York State, as shown by the Controller's accounts, are $205, 159, 576, which is $226,061 less than the amount recorded in December, but is substantially greater than the figures of the first statement in 1900, which did not reach the $200,000,000 mark. The new statement shows the amount of individual deposits of the Empire State National banks, which is considered the bankers' barometer, to be $123,- 955,773, a gain of $1,634,486. The reports of the forty-four national banks in New York City indicate that their total resources and individual deposits are $1,233,847,877, and $559,150,037 respectively, which exceed the preceding official figures by the enormous sums of $181,287,197, and $32,649,113 respectively. The total resources of the national banks in the State of New York are shown to be $1,506,638,555, while the individual deposits amount to $702,707,001. It is estimated that with the savings bank resources and individual deposits combined with those of the national banks, the total bank assets in the entire State would be approximately $2,000,000,000 and the deposits $1,000,000,000. Flourishing bank conditions exist in other sections of the country, where in some sections the percentage of increase is greater than in New York. Texas is a conspicuous example of the great prosperity enjoyed throughout the South. Since January 1, 1900, fifty-nine new banks have been established in this district, most of them in accordance with the act of March 14, 1900. The number recently reported to the Treasury was 588, about the same as from New York. The resources and deposits reported by the national banks of the Lone Star State are $1,898,512 and $747,125, exceeding the December record by $4,309,318 and $2,373,257 respectively. Probably the most remarkable reports have been sent to the Controller by the Oklahoma National Banks, whose abstracts reflect the substantial increases in deposits and resources of $1,023,551 and $212,847, 1901. This Territory's forty national banks have been established since January 25, 1900.

In Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Illinois, including their principal cities, big increases in National Bank assets have been observed and the same encouraging reports are made concerning the bank statements for other States and cities whose accounts have been balanced. Judging from the general run of the completed abstracts of officials predict that the grand total of aggregate resources and individual deposits of all the national banks in the United States, including Alaska and Hawaii will exceed by many millions the high water mark, which was recorded on December 13th, when the resources were $7,142,959,632 and the individual deposits were $2,633,997,521.
The six greatest financial cities in the United States, as reckoned by the Controller of the Currency reports rank at present as follows: New York, Boston, Chicago, Philadelphia, Pittsburg and St. Louis.

"BUNCOMBE."

It Don't Always Pay to Be Skeptical
When a newspaper writer and proof reader that works nights can feed himself out of dyspepsia, which most of that class suffer with, it is worth while to know the kind of food used.

This man is on one of the Rockefeller, Ill. papers, and says: "Being a newspaper writer and proof reader, also a graduate in medicine as well, though not practicing, makes a combination that would produce a skeptic on the subject if anything would."

"Day after day I read the proof on the Grape Nuts Food advertisements with the feeling that they were all 'buncombe.' All this time I was suffering from dyspepsia from the improper food I was eating at the restaurant.

One day I saw a package of Grape-Nuts at the restaurant and tried it with good, rich cream. The dish took my fancy at once. After a few lunches at midnight I noted an improvement in my feelings and was able to work with less fatigue.

"I have used Grape-Nuts as a regular diet since then and have improved greatly. The old dyspepsia and bad feelings that I thought were necessary adjuncts to night work all disappeared and I am able to do much more with less effort than ever before."

"I was nearly ready to give up night work and seek health in some other walk in life, but thanks to my change in diet I am now all right."

"Please do not use my name in public." Name can be given by Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich.

torney upon the matter.

WORKMEN INJURED BY BREAKING CRANE.

A large hook attached to a traveling crane at the Oakland Iron Works broke yesterday afternoon. Three of the workmen, George Powell, Frank Gilmartin, and P. O'Day were seriously injured. The former two were struck by an iron connecting bar, sustaining severe scalp wounds. O'Day had his leg sprained.
The men were removed to the office of Dr. Lilley for treatment.

TALCOTT BRINGS MANDAMUS SUIT.

J. R. Talcott has filed a petition for a writ of mandamus compelling the Board of Trustees of the Melrose School District to pay him $200 for a school house site. The petition arises out of the difficulties resulting from the recent election in this district for which Talcott of a school site. Two sites were offered, and two elections were held. In the former, a site offered by W. G. Henshaw was selected. In the second election Talcott's site was chosen. Henshaw recently instituted proceedings to compel the Superintendent of Schools to pay him $200 for his site. The action however was against him Talcott will now try his hand at mandamus proceedings.

this city.

Mrs. Standeford has lived in Oakland many years and was one of the prominent women of the city, identified in many ways with its history.

Mrs. Standeford was born in Indiana in 1831. She early showed exceptional intellectual ability, and was one of the early students at Oberlin College, from which she graduated with the honors of her class.

She came to Oakland thirty years ago, and in the intervening years her influence has been felt in educational work and in the philanthropies of the city. She taught in the High and Prescott schools and was for many years principal of the Grove street school. She resigned the principalship of the Grove street school three years ago, much to the regret of the families in her district.

In all her educational work she had gained the love of parents and children.

Her sympathies were broad and her interest in the children of her school were never centered wholly in the school room. She followed them to their homes, and her care for the poor and needy was always part of the history of the Grove street school.

In the educational world Mrs. J. A. Stan-deford's influence was always a powerful factor. She was intensely conscientious, with high ideals and a fearlessness in expressing them, and in carrying them out, which made her influence worth while in the school department.

Everyone knew that there was always the courage of her convictions, and that expediency had no place in formulating her educational code, or in carrying out her educational standards.

It was with deep regret three years ago that Mrs. Standeford's resignation was accepted and with the deep affection of the people among whom she had worked for so long Mrs. Standeford gave up school work, and devoted herself to the many philanthropies that appealed to her so strongly.

A rare unselfishness was the strongest attribute in her character. Her life work showed a rare and secret sympathy for others, and in many ways there was the comfort and assistance sent by the kind friend, who knew how to enter into their lives and to send a touch of brightness into sorrowing homes.

She was a woman of a broad horizon, of a wide outlook, far above any smallness or pettiness in life. She had true ideals of friendship and was loyal to a degree in her devotion to friends and relatives.

In passing out of life she leaves among them all a place that will never be filled, and she leaves a memory of the passing of a great soul, the world the better that she has lived. There are left of the immediate family to mourn her loss, her husband, Mr. J.
D. Standeford, and her daughter, Mrs.
John F. Connors. There are also many other relatives, as the family connection is a large one.

The funeral will take place Sunday next at 12:30 o'clock p. m. from the family residence, 602 Fourteenth street.
Interment will be private.

DECISION AGAINST STOCK EXCHANGE.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
NEW YORK, Mar. 22.—Judge Lovett of the Supreme Court has rendered a decision which is adverse to the New York Stock Exchange. In the case of Henry Bernheim vs. Rudolph Keppeler, as president of the exchange. The history of the case is briefly:

Abraham Bernheim was a member of the Stock Exchange and died a member.
Upon his death the Stock Exchange committee sold his seat and applied the proceeds in payment of a debt owed by him to another member, J. Levy & Co. But the debt, amounting to $18,000, had been contracted before Bernheim became a member of the exchange. The exchange committee applied the proceeds of the sale to this debt under an article of the constitution of the exchange. Counsel for the plaintiff contended that the proceeds of the sale could not be applied to the debt because the debt was not contracted between members of the institution. This defendant was necessarily President Keppeler, because the exchange is not an incorporated institution. The litigation was brought in 1897 and continued until made before Judge Lovett in November last.
His decision is important since it is understood, this is the first case decided in the history of the State constituting the section referred to.

OIL FROM NEW TEXAS FIELDS.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
NEW YORK, Mar. 22.—A shipment of 200 barrels of crude oil from the new Texas oil fields has arrived in port on the tank steamer Atlas, chartered to the Standard Oil Company. This shipment is said to be for experimental purposes, and it is not the intention of the company to operate a regular tank service from Texas at present. The oil was shipped from Beaumont, Tex., and loaded in the tank steamer at Sabine Pass. The Atlas left Sabine Pass on March 15th and went to Havana, where she picked up the company's cargo No. 18, which has a cargo of molasses. The cargo was dropped at Delaware Breakwater and was towed to Philadelphia.

There are only two tank steamers, the Atlas and the Marwick, operated by the Standard Oil Company under the American flag, these are the only available boats for the Texas oil traffic, coming as it does under the head of domestic traffic. The company, however, has a number of tank barges of large capacity which may be towed by these steamers.

RUMMAGE SALE ALMOST READY.

A Novelty Which Is Bound to Be a Success.

It will probably come as a shock to thousands of people who a past year have sought to drive dull care away by spending a few hours at Piedmont that Blair Park is not to be reopened this spring. This popular park at the base of the Contra Costa hills has been for years a favorite resort for many people, especially those who only "outing" days Sundays or holidays. The Blair Park tract belongs to the Walter Blair estate, but the Oakland Transit Company has had it under lease for several years.
It was maintained by the company as an inducement to travel over the Piedmont street railway. However, the company has decided that it is more profitable to haul lumber freight over level ground than up hill and down dale. So Ayala Park, on hill and down dale, 30 Ayala Park, on Telegraph avenue, about fifty-third street, beyond Temescal, is to be improved and opened the coming season as a resort.

It is likely that Blair Park may be subdivided into villa lots and sold under the city cars to purchase it for park purposes and preserve it. Should the park be destroyed by subdivisions and maintained as private grounds, one of the most popular places of resort on the east side of the bay will have disappeared.

filling, we are waiting in nothing. We employ only those of long experience, too, prescriptions do not leave our store

PEACE TERMS OFFERED THE BURGHERS.

Independence the Rock on Which Boer and Briton Split.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
LONDON, March 22.—The parliamentary papers giving details of the negotiations between the Boer commander-in-chief, General Botha, and Lord Kitchener, commanding the British forces in south Africa, issued this morning, begin with a telegram from Sir Alfred Milner to Mr. Chamberlain. This dispatch is dated Pretoria, February 23, and states that Mrs. Botha has returned from a meeting with her husband bringing a letter in reply to Sir Alfred Milner's verbal message offering a general surrender. "I decline to discuss the war on the express understanding that he would not discuss the question of the independence of the Transvaal and the Orange River colony. Mrs. Botha assured Sir Alfred that the letter was written with that point clearly understood.
General Botha referred the matter to his generals and it was stated that the meeting would probably take place at Middleburg.

Mr. Chamberlain replied that he was glad to hear of General Botha's desire to treat and hoped it was genuine. "He will find us," said the Colonial Secretary, "anxious to meet him on all points affecting his individual position."

On February 24, Sir Alfred Milner called Lord Kitchener informing him that General Botha had written that he would be in Pretoria at 10 o'clock a. m.
February 26th.

A dispatch from Lord Kitchener to the War Office, dated Pretoria, February 26th, reports a long interview with General Botha, who showed very good feeling and seemed anxious for peace. He asked for information, which he said he would submit to his Government, the Generals and the people. If they agreed he would visit the Orange River colony and get them to agree. Should all then hand in their arms it would finish the war. He said they could go on for some time and he was not sure he would be able to bring about peace without independence. "I decline to discuss such a point," said Lord Kitchener, "and said a modified form of independence would be most dangerous and would lead to war in the future. Replying to General Botha's inquiry, I informed him that when hostilities ceased the military administration consisted of a committee executive and an elected assembly to advise him, followed after a period by a representative government. The Boers would be licensed to have rifles to protect themselves against the natives; the Dutch and English languages were to have equal rights. Kaffirs would not have franchise until after representative government had been granted. The Orange Free State laws for Kaffirs would be considered good, church property, public trusts and orphan funds would not be touched, no war tax would be imposed on farmers, assistance would be given to repair the burned farms and to enable the farms to start afresh and colonists who had joined the republics should be self-sufficient."

General Botha generally seemed satisfied with these conditions.

Among the questions to which Lord Kitchener apparently did not reply were when the war prisoners would return and regarding the taking over of debts of the republics, including those legally contracted since the beginning of the war.

General Botha was reported to be making a strong point of this. He referred to notes which had been issued, amounting to less than a million pounds.

Lord Kitchener arranged to communicate Botha's views to his government. All that he said was qualified by being subject to confirmation from the home government.

On March 2 Sir Alfred Milner called Lord Kitchener, suggesting the following reply to General Botha:

"I beg to inform you that on the accession of hostilities and the complete surrender of arms, ammunition, cannon and munitions in the hands of the burghers in the fields at the government's disposal or elsewhere, His Majesty's government is prepared at once to grant amnesty to the Transvaal and Orange River Colony for all hostilities committed during the hostilities, as well as move the governments of Cape Colony and Natal to similar action, qualified by the disclaimer of any British subjects implicated in the war. The military prisoners in St. Helena, Ceylon and elsewhere, on complete surrender, shall be brought back to their country. Military law shall at once be replaced by civil law administration, but it is the duty of His Majesty's government to establish a representative government. On the cessation of hostilities, a high court, independent of the executive, shall be established to administer the laws. Land, church property, trusts and orphan funds shall be respected. The English and Dutch languages shall be taught in the public schools and used in the law courts."

The legal debts of the state to the amount of £1,000,000 shall be paid, even if contracted during hostilities, to the extent a creditor proves he has given value. The government does not intend to extend the franchise to the Kaffirs in the Transvaal and Orange River Colony before a representative government is granted."

The conditions regarding assistance to the farmers, Kaffirs, etc., are the same as those in Lord Kitchener's replies to General Botha. Sir Alfred Milner adds that he agrees to the above except as to the desire for modification regarding British subjects in Cape Colony and Natal in the Boer army, who, if they returned to those colonies, will be liable to be sent with under the laws of those colonies, passed to meet circumstances arising in war.

He added: "While I am willing to concede much in order to strengthen General Botha in inducing the people to submit, amnesty for the rebels in Natal, in my opinion, a point which His Majesty's government can afford to concede. I think it would have a demonstrable effect upon Cape Colony and Natal to obtain peace by such a concession."

Mr. Chamberlain, in a reply dated March 6th, directs Lord Kitchener to modify the terms on a number of points. Eventually Lord Kitchener reported to the War Office under date of Pretoria, March 20th, that he had written General Botha the terms the government was prepared to adopt.
These were the same already given except in the following particulars:
